FAMILY VIOLENCE
PREVENTION COUNCIL

LaSalle County Committee

Referral Resource Manual
LaSalle County
April 2009

Introduction

In 1996, in response to the prevalence of family violence in the area, Chief Judge Robert L. Carter, Judge Cynthia M. Raccuglia, and the late Judge William R. Banich, along with other local judges, convened the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Family Violence Prevention Council. Since that time, hundreds of community leaders and other volunteers have worked together to address how we can end family violence in our communities.

In 2002, the LaSalle County Committee was formed. One task given to the LaSalle County Committee was to review a resource manual that the Council had previously developed. The purpose of the resource manual is to provide referral information to victims of family violence. To this end, the LaSalle County Committee of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Family Violence Prevention Council presents this Resource Manual.

We hope that you find the Resource Manual to be informative and useful in your practice. By including information in this Resource Manual, we are in no way making a recommendation for that agency. Nor does the exclusion of an agency mean that its services are not recommended.

Changes in agencies occur regularly. If you become aware of a change, or if you would like to suggest an addition of another agency, please contact the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Family Violence Prevention Council at (815) 431-0630. In addition, if you would like to receive information on up-dated versions of the Resource Manual, either check our Internet site (www.familyviolence13.org) or fill out and return the form following this page.

I would like to receive information when the LaSalle County Resource Manual is up-dated.
